

CUTTING BACK & KEEPING UP WHEN MONEY IS TIGHT

If you are facing a drop in income due to the pandemic, job loss or other situation, learning how to manage your money is more important than ever.

Join Jackie Carattini, Human Development Educator with UW-Madison Division of Extension Wood County, for the two-hour budgeting and credit class, Cutting Back & Keeping Up When Money is Tight. Topics of discussion include:

- creating financial goals
- tracking expenses
- creating & maintaining a budget
- managing credit

This class is open to the public and will be offered the 2nd Tuesday of each month via Zoom.
